If the insurance cover did not commence prior to the end of the withdrawal period, the effect of a withdrawal notice will be that any benefits received must be reimbursed and any advantage derived therefrom (e.g. interest) must be handed over.

Special notices:

Your right to withdraw will be deemed null and void if the contract has been fulfilled in its entirety by both you and us in accordance with your express wishes, and this occurred before you exercised your right to withdraw.

Section 5 In what situations are you not insured (special exclusions)?

You do not have insurance cover

1. for episodes caused by a mental illness, if the most recent episode was not at least three years prior to arranging the insurance.
2. for addictions.
3. for an existing illness that was last treated within the six months prior to arranging the insurance. This also applies if, under normal circumstances, recovery from the illness should have taken place by the time of travel.

4. in the case of a quarantine order generally applicable to part or all of the population, to an entire ship or to an entire geographical area. Furthermore, no insurance cover is provided in the event of a quarantine order being issued because you have previously travelled to a specific area or have come from a specific location.

Section 6 When do you have to cancel the trip (special obligation), and what assistance do we offer for this question? What other special obligations must you be aware of?

You are obliged,

1. to cancel the trip without delay following the occurrence of the insured event, in order to keep the cancellation costs as low as possible. In the case of illnesses, this also applies if, under normal circumstances, recovery from the illness should have taken place by the time of travel. If you contact our medical service (cancellation advice) without delay, we will advise you on this. There will be no breach of duty if they advise you to wait and see and you follow this advice.
2. to send us the proof of insurance and the booking documents.
3. to provide us with the invoice of the cancellation fees, and proof that these have been paid. When cancelling the use of a property, we will also need a confirmation from the letting company that it was not possible to re-let the property.
4. to provide evidence of the serious accidental injury, unexpected serious illness, pregnancy or inability to tolerate vaccine in the form of a medical report. The diagnosis and treatment data must be included. Please note: you will only be able to prove the occurrence of these events if your doctor has examined you directly prior to the cancellation.
5. to prove all other insured events by presenting suitable original documents.

Section 7 What happens if you breach an obligation?

1. If you intentionally breach an obligation, we shall be entitled to refuse the insurance benefit. If you breach an obligation through your gross negligence, we may reduce the indemnity to an extent commensurate to the severity of your fault. You must prove that you have not acted in gross negligence.
2. If you prove that the breach of duty did not affect the determination or the scope of our indemnity obligation, we will be obliged to provide you insurance benefits. This does not apply if you have acted deceitfully.

Section 8 What happens if the cost of travel exceeds the insured sum?

If, at the time of the occurrence of the insured event, your insured cost of travel (sum insured) is less than your actual cost of travel, you are under-insured. "Cost of travel" is understood to mean the travel expenses plus the agency fee and visa charges. In this case, we will compensate losses on a pro rata basis, calculated according to the ratio of the sum insured to the cost of travel.

Section 9 What applies for rates that include a deductible?

With these rates, you will personally bear 20 % of the reimbursable loss; at least € 25.00 per loss event per person or property.

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

In accordance with Art. 13 and 14 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we are informing you about how your personal data is processed by AWP P&C S.A., Niederlassung für Deutschland (Germany Branch), and about the rights to which you are entitled under data protection law. Please make all co-insured individuals (e. g. your spouse) aware of this policy.

I Who is responsible for processing your personal data?

Responsibility for processing your personal data rests with

AWP P&C S.A., Niederlassung für Deutschland
Bahnhofstraße 16
D - 85609 Aschheim (near Munich).

The Data Protection Officer can be contacted by standard mail at the aforementioned address, using the suffix "Data Protection Officer", or by email at datenschutz-azpde@allianz.com.

II For what purpose is your data processed, and on what legal basis does this take place?

1. What applies to all categories of personal data?

We process your personal data in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG), the provisions of the German Insurance Contract Act (VVG) relevant to data protection law, as well as all other applicable laws.

When you apply for insurance cover, we will require the information provided by you at this point in order to arrange the contract and to estimate the risk assumed by us. If the insurance contract comes into being, we will process this data for the implementation of the contractual relationship, such as for invoicing purposes. We require information about loss or damage in order to be able to assess whether an insured event has occurred and determine the extent of this loss or damage.

It is not possible to arrange and implement the insurance contract without processing your personal data.

Art. 6 (1) b) GDPR constitutes the legal basis for the processing of personal data for pre-contractual and contractual purposes.

Alongside that, Art. 6 (1) a) and c) – f) GDPR contain other legally defined situations in which we are entitled to process personal data.

We will process your data in order to fulfil a legal obligation in accordance with Art 6 (1) c) GDPR, such as to review claims for settlement, if another insurer seeks recourse from us due to the existence of multiple insurance policies.

We will also process your data in order to uphold our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of others, Art. 6 (1) f) GDPR. This may be the case particularly:

- for ensuring IT security and IT operations
- for marketing our own insurance products, and for conducting marketing surveys and opinion polls
- for the prevention and investigation of criminal activities (in particular, we employ data analyses to detect possible indications of insurance fraud).

As a rule, we only process that data that we have received directly from you. In certain cases we may also receive such data from other sources (such as if another insurer seeks recourse from us due to the existence of multiple insurance policies).

We also process your personal data in order to fulfil other statutory obligations, such as regulatory requirements, as well as data retention obligations imposed by commercial and tax law. In these cases, the legal basis of the data processing is provided by the relevant statutory regulations in conjunction with Art 6 (1) c) GDPR.

We may also process your data in accordance with Art 6 (1) d) GDPR in order to protect your vital interests, or if you have consented to the data processing, Art. 6 (1) a) GDPR.

If we wish to process your data for any purpose other than those specified above, we will notify you in advance within the framework of the statutory regulations.

2. What applies to special categories of personal data, especially health data?

There are special safeguards on the processing of special categories of personal data, of which health data is one. As a rule, processing is permitted only if you have consented to the processing in accordance with Art. 9 (2) a) GDPR, or if this is a case of one of the other situations defined by law, Art. 9 (2) b) – j) GDPR.

a) Processing of your special categories of personal data

In many cases, in order to review the benefit entitlement, we require personal data belonging to a special category (sensitive data). This includes health data, for example. If, in connection with a specific insured event, you provide us with such data together with a request to review and process the claim, you are explicitly permitting us to process your sensitive data necessary in order to process the insured event. We will again remind you specifically of this fact in the claim form.

You may withdraw your consent at any time, with future effect. However, we explicitly inform you that it may in that case no longer be possible to review our indemnity obligation in connection with the insured event. If the review of the claim is already concluded, there may be statutory retention obligations that mean the data cannot be erased.

We may also process your sensitive data if this is necessary to protect your vital interests, and if you are physically or legally incapable of giving consent, Art. 9 (2) c) GDPR. This may be the case if you suffer a serious accident while travelling, for example.

In the case of multiple insurance policies, if another insurer seeks recourse from us or if we seek recourse from another insurer, we may process your sensitive data in order to assert and defend the statutory claim for settlement, Art. 9 (2) f) GDPR.

b) Requesting health data from third parties for review of the indemnity obligation

In order to review our indemnity obligation, it may be necessary for us to review information about the state of your health, as provided by you for the substantiation of claims, or which is contained in the documents submitted (e.g. invoices, prescriptions, medical reports) or statements, such as from a doctor or other member of the healthcare profession.

For this purpose, we will require your consent, including a confidentiality waiver covering us and all agencies subject to a duty of confidentiality, and which are required to provide information for review of the indemnity obligation.

We will notify you in each specific case about what persons or institutions require information for what purpose. You may then decide in each case whether you consent to us collecting and using your health information, and whether to release the named persons or institutions and their duty of non-disclosure, and if you agree to the communication of your health data to us, or if you want to personally provide the necessary documentation.

III To what recipients will we communicate your data?

Recipients of your personal data may include: selected external service providers (e.g. assistance service providers, benefit processors, transport service providers, technical service providers, etc.), other insurers (e.g. in the case of multiple insurance coverage).

We also insure some of the risks that we cover with specialist insurance companies (re-insurers). To this end, it may be necessary to send your contract and, where relevant, your claims information to a re-insurer, to enable it to form its own opinion of the risk or the insured event.

If you join a group insurance contract as an insured person, (e.g. when acquiring a credit card), we may disclose your personal data to the policyholder (a bank for example), if it has a legitimate interest in knowing this information.

In addition, we may also communicate your personal data to other recipients, such as public authorities for the fulfilment of statutory duties of notification (e.g. finance authorities or criminal investigation agencies).

The forwarding of data is a form of data processing, and is likewise performed within the framework of the principles set out in Art. 6 (1) and Art. 9 (2) GDPR.

IV How long will we retain your data?

We will retain your data for the period during which claims may be made against our company (statutory limitation period of 3 to 30 years). We will also retain your data if we are under a legal obligation to do so, e.g. according to the provisions of the German Commercial Code, the German Fiscal Code or the German Money Laundering Act. The relevant retention periods range up to ten years.

V Where will your data be processed?

If we should transfer your data to service providers located outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), the transfer within the Allianz Group will be performed on the basis of "Binding Corporate Rules", which have been approved by the data protection authorities. These form part of the "Allianz Privacy Standard". These Corporate Rules are binding on all companies within the Allianz Group, and they ensure an appropriate level of protection for personal data. The "Allianz Privacy Standard" and the list of Allianz Group companies bound by this standard, can be viewed here: <https://www.allianz-partners.com/allianz-partners---binding-corporate-rules-.html>.

In those cases in which the "Allianz Privacy Standard" does not apply, the transfer of data to third countries will take place in accordance with Art. 44 – 50 GDPR.

VI What are your rights?

You have the right to be informed about all of the information retained by us, and to demand that incorrect data be rectified. Under certain conditions, you also have the right to the erasure of data, the right to object to processing, the right to the restriction of processing and the right to data portability.

Right of objection

You may object to the processing of your data for direct marketing purposes. If we process your data in order to protect legitimate interests, you may object to this processing for reasons pertaining to your particular situation.

If you have any objections concerning the handling of your data, you may contact the aforementioned Data Protection Officer in this connection. You are also entitled to lodge an objection with a data protection supervisory authority.
